

Saturday Special Sale of Turkish Towels

Regular 30c Values, 19c Each

There are times when Towel manufacturers want cash more than left-over lots. This is one of the times and we took all that one of the best makers had in Bath Towel Seconds at this price. They are all good Turkish Towels, but each one has some little spot or some other slight imperfection that makes no difference to its usefulness. That is why they are priced at so much less than their regular value.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New corsets on sale. See window at Vaughan's.

Walton and Educator shoes for children. All solid leather. Shea's Shoe Store.

Miss Emma Sevegnay of Farwell street has gone to Lancaster, N. H., where she will make an extended visit with relatives and friends.

Mothers, if you are looking for a good durable school suit for the boy, the McWhorter Co. will make you extremely low prices on some broken lots.

Mrs. C. W. Huntington and two sons, who have been spending several days with friends in the city, returned this morning to their home in Hardwick.

The amusement committee of the Odd Ladies will meet at 7:30 Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Edith Dale, 23 Green street. Let there be a full attendance.

Mrs. James Grogan of Brook street, who is recovering from a severe case of blood poisoning in her right arm, is absent on a trip to Lake Champlain and the Adirondacks.

Here is one the leading punches, a claret lemonade creation made only from fresh lemons and oranges. Worth the price to watch our own Josh Slinger concoct this beverage. Drown's fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown and son, William, who have been residing in the city for the past two months, having recently arrived from Aberdeen, Scotland, left last night for New York City, where they will make their residence.

Carroll's six-piece orchestra has been engaged to play for the dance given on the night of September 8, on the second day of the fair at Northfield. For several years the same musicians have been engaged to play for this dance. A large number of people from here are planning to attend.

Elder James Hatch and Elder H. E. John, who have been connected with the Vermont Mormon conference in Burlington for the past two years, have been released from duty and were visitors in the city to-day on their way home to Ogden, Utah, where they will remain for an extended time.

John McDonald of 4 Smith place, who has been absent from his duties as clerk in the Granite City store on Granite street on account of an injury to his right knee, was able to return to work this noon. While playing in a game of football during the latter part of last week, Mr. McDonald had the misfortune to give the knee a bad sprain. A doctor's examination showed no broken bones, although a bad swelling came. Treatment has been administered during the week and although the sprain is far from well, Mr. McDonald was able to resume work this noon.

The Barre opera house will be reopened to-night under the management of the new lessees, Nelson & Austin, who succeed Fox & Easton of Claremont, N. H., whose long lease of the theatre expired Monday. As a curtain-raiser for their debut in the theatrical business, the lessees are to offer Adelaide French in "The Law of the Land." Miss French, who will be remembered as one of the creators of the role of "Madame X," and her company arrived in the city to-day from Littleton, N. H. From Barre they will go to Plattsburg, N. Y., and thence to Portland, Me., for a two weeks' stay. The advance sale of seats has been large. Weaver and Comelli vs. Kiley and Fowle—Italian A. C. vs. Barre A. C. at the Berlin street grounds Saturday afternoon.—Adv.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Baker of New York City arrived in the city to-day for a visit at the home of Mrs. Baker's sister, Mrs. Peter Marmon of Summer street.

Large stock of fine quality leather just arrived. Rubber soles. Factory method by the victor machine. At Charbonneau's. Basement of Worthen block, Keith avenue side.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Hicks, who have been spending several days with their daughters, Mrs. G. E. Perry and Mrs. Harry Russell of Highland avenue, returned this forenoon to their home in St. Johnsbury.

D. A. Perry will not be able to conduct an auction sale for C. B. Croft until Saturday evening. Hence the next sale will be held on that evening at 7 o'clock. Big discounts at private sale every day from 7 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Acquisitions to the ice and drink list at Drown's "Quality" service fountain includes an importation from John D. Wanamaker's, the largest fountain in the United States. This specialty is made from oranges fresh for each customer.

The fifth and last game of the series of five games of baseball that are being played between the Italian Athletic club and the Barre Athletic club has been advertised to be played at the Italian A. C.'s grounds off Berlin street on next Saturday afternoon.

The series now stands three to one in favor of the Italians, the latter winning the first three and the Barre team winning the game played last Saturday, when they defeated the Italians by the overwhelming score of 18 to 0. Kiley and Fowle for Barre and Weaver and Comelli for the Italians have been announced as the batteries. Although this game will be the last of the series, the two teams will meet again on Labor day, when they play for a purse of $100. The same batteries as advertised for Saturday's game have been announced to officiate on Labor day.

Under the direction of the aldermanic fire committee, the city hydrants and fire alarm boxes are being recoated with paint. The alarm boxes are more susceptible to the rigors of the weather and for that reason they stand more sadly in need of repainting.

Winifred Smith of Perry street and Harold Fitts of Park street have returned from North Hero, where they have been passing a few days at Camp Abnaki. The camp, which has been open since the latter part of June, closed today, after one of the most successful seasons in its history. Plans for next year's camping season are to be started at once, as the promoters are satisfied that the North Hero camp is a fixture in the summer life of Vermont boys.

Bonaccorsis are to try conclusions with the Rangers at soccer football on the Italian Athletic club field next Monday morning and rivalry between the two clubs has reached a keen pitch since it was announced that the pair are matched. This year Barre has been without its customary league soccer and consequently interest had dwindled considerably until the Labor day plans of the two foremost clubs were made known. Dribbling contests and a 100-yard dash are to be held before the football match. Arrangements are being made to handle a large crowd on the grounds, as the program does not interfere with the doings at Granite City park in the afternoon.

Guests arriving by motor and train filled Hotel Barre to overflowing again last night. In addition to a large quota of professional men here for the funeral directors' convention, there were many tourist arrivals, among them being: Hon. Charles L. Crocker, Mrs. Crocker and Mrs. Pauline Crocker of Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Lewis and Graham Lewis and two chauffeurs, also of Montreal; Mrs. H. C. Hopkins, Mrs. C. Bridgeport, Mrs. Charles Vorhoff, jr., of New York City and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bridgeport and Miss Grace Henry of Canaan, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Smith of Boston and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ketchum of West Roxbury, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown and Mrs. Avis Holly of Boston; B. E. Finch and son, Boston; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cowles of Albany, Mrs. Jennie of Newport, Mrs. Chafey and Miss Chafey of St. Johnsbury; Dr. George D. Samson, W. S. Scofield and Dr. A. L. Larner of Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Caron of Barre.

Superintendent Alexander Hanton of the city cemeteries returned to the city last night from a two weeks' western trip in the course of which he attended the annual convention of the National Association of Cemetery Superintendents in Minneapolis, Minn. An effort on the part of New England superintendents, led by Mr. Hanton, to have the national convention meet at Barre, was successful, insofar as the association virtually went on record as favoring this city as a meeting place for 1917. Next year the superintendents are to be entertained in Norfolk, Va., and as the North will be due for a convention in the following year it is quite probable that the association will meet in the Barre granite region. On his return trip east Superintendent Hanton stopped at Detroit, Mich., and visited his brother, Thomas Hanton, a captain in the city fire department, who is pleasantly remembered by a number of local people. More than 100 cemetery heads from all parts of the country were assembled at Minneapolis.
